

Who is King Jace?

King Jace presides over Woonsocket's Mardi Gras celebration each year. And while his spirit stays constant, he is portrayed each year by a different person of importance in the community.

Readers are invited to guess who is behind the beard and sunglasses. Ten clues will hint at his (or her) identity over 10 days leading up to the Mardi Gras celebration March 4.

Clue No. 6

He's quite a hugger,
was once a slugger,
Baseball is his favorite sport.

If you'd like to submit your guess on who King Jace is, here's how to do it:

You must submit your guess with $1 in specially prepared white envelopes, now available at radio stations WOON, 1 Social St., and WNRI, Diamond Hill Road, as well as Harlequin's Costumes, 97 Main St., all in Woonsocket.

Also, dozens of white envelopes will be available at all sites of the Mardi Gras celebration on March 4, along with lists of the 10 clues. Guesses, along with $1 each, can be submitted as late as Mardi Gras night.

The winner will be chosen at random from all correct entries after King Jace is unmasked March 4 and will receive half the sum collected, with the other half helping to support the Mardi Gras celebration.
